Errata to Regulations and Guidelines 2011-2012 as published on the FEB website.

1. The opening will read:

“Regulations and Guidelines as mentioned in articles 7.12b paragraphs 1 and 3 of the Higher Education and Research Act (WHW) for all degree programmes offered by the Faculty of Economics and Business (FEB), excepting the master degree programme Economics & Business (Research Master).

The Board of Examiners of the above-mentioned programmes, hereafter: The Board of Examiners, taking into account articles 7.12.b.1 and 7.12.b.3 of the Higher Education and Research Act (WHW), that stipulate the following regulations and guidelines:”

DECLIDES

2. Article 2 will be renumbered to article 1 and so on.

In the definitions OER article 1 will be replaced by the opening.

3. Article 3 (old), article 2 (new) paragraph 2 under e will read as follows:

   e. determining measures in the event of an infringement of the order during an examination within the meaning of Article 8 or in the event of cheating within the meaning of Article 9.

4.

5. Article 9 (old), Article 8 (new) paragraph 14 will read as follows:

   14. It is forbidden to go to the toilet unless the examiner gives the student express permission.

6. To Article 9 (old), Article 8 (new) a new paragraph 15 is added:

   15. If a student violates the rules formulated here or interferes with the order during the exam in an other way, the examiner can exclude her or him from further participation in the exam. The handed in exam work will not be marked, unless the Board of Examiners decides otherwise. The examiner may request the Board of Examiners to decides on further sanctions. The examiner reports the exclusion to the Board of Examiners, immediately after the exam.

7. In Article 10 (old), Article 9 (new), paragraph 2 the text after cheating is cancelled.
8. Article 11 (old), Article 10 (new), paragraph 1 will read:

1. The questions and assignments of the examination will be confined to the sources for the examination paper published in advance. These sources will be announced in the main before the course relating to the examination commences. The examination subjects will be announced in detail not later than one month before the exam date.

9. To Article 14 (old), Article 13 (new) a new paragraph 7 is added, reading:

7. At a student’s written request, the Board of Examiners may decide that the last examination to be taken by the student after the student has completed the final degree project may take place outside a regular examination period. This request shall not be granted if there is a regular examination planned for the course in question in the next two examination periods, unless the Board of Examiners decides otherwise. An application will be refused if an application is made either during a period in which a regular exam is scheduled, or in the period immediately following the period in which a regular exam is scheduled, and in either case the applicant did not attend the exam. Such a request will only be processed if it is accompanied by an approved list of courses, or the list of courses has been approved in Progresswww. If this last examination is not passed, the Board of Examiners may decide that the only allowed resit takes place within a term of three to six weeks, calculated from the time of the publication of the results. Extracurricular examinations may not be taken for courses that have already been passed.

10. Article 19 (old), Article 18 new, paragraph 2 will read:

2. If an appeal is lodged against a decision taken by an examiner, the appellant (the person lodging the appeal) should lodge a formal appeal (stating the reasons for the appeal) with the Central Portal for the Legal Protection of Student Rights (CLRS) of the university within six weeks of the decision. Before lodging an appeal with the Committee of Appeal the student may first lodge an objection with the Board of Examiners. Against the decision of the Board of Examiners an appeal may be lodged with the Committee of Appeal in accordance with paragraph 3.