

Media, Data Politics and Society - Emerging Theory and Research

A symposium showcasing cross-cluster research in the Faculty of Arts

Tuesday 31 October 2023

1314.0142 (former law library)

9:30	Tea/ Coffee
9:45	Welcome and introduction  Malcolm Campbell-Verduyn &amp; Marianne Franklin Official opening  Anthonya Visser
10:00 – 11:00	Session 1 Rik Smit “Taking Buzzwords Seriously: Platforms, memory and AI” Margriet Hoogvliet &amp; Sabrina Corbellini “Media Changes in Historical Perspective”
11:00	Coffee break
11.30 – 12.30	Session 2 Lukas Linsi et al “Measuring the Unmeasurable: The Politics of Guesstimates” Federico Petris “Virality as Currency of Truth-ness, and Online Political Subjectivities”
12:30	Lunch break
13:00 – 14:00	Session 3 David Cheruiyot “Accounting for the Harms of Journalism: The Cost of Reparations for the Victims of the News” Christina Pinna “China’s Image in Europe: How Media Narrative on the BRI has Changed in a Decade”
14:00	Coffee break
14:15 – 15:45	Session 4 João C. Magalhães “Moderating (Through) Emotions” Ben Johnson “Imaginaries, Technology and the Future Arctic” Femke Vandenberg “The Show Must Go On(line): Livestreamed Concerts and the Hyper-ritualisation of Genre Conventions”
15:45	Closing remarks followed by drinks reception