Language requirements/taalvereisten

Nederlandstalige bachelors
Voor de Nederlandstalige bachelor is het NT2 diploma vereist

English Bachelors
Candidates whose native language is not English must provide adequate evidence of proficiency in English. We accept the following tests/documents:
1. computer TOEFL: score of at least 237, all sections sufficient (so at least 21 on each section), and a TWE of at least 4.5; or,
2. paper TOEFL: score of at least 580, all sections sufficient (so at least 55 on each section), and a TWE of at least 4.5; or,
3. internet TOEFL: score of at least 92, all sections sufficient (so at least 21 on each section); or,
4. IELTS Academic (British Council’s English Language Test), original only: score of at least 6.5, all sections sufficient (so at least 6.0 on each section); or,
5. CPE, Cambridge Certificate of Proficiency in English; or,
6. CAE, Cambridge Certificate of Advanced English; or,
7. official letter from the secondary school stating that the language of instruction is (was) English in all subjects.

Only those whose native language is English are exempted from evidence of proficiency in English.

For more information: