The board of a funded university, university of applied sciences or ideological university must provide advice to each student on whether it would be wise to continue studying within or outside their Bachelor’s degree programme no later than by the end of their first year of registration for the propaedeutic phase of a full-time or dual programme. For part-time Bachelor’s degree programmes, the board of the institution will determine when this advice is issued.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 1, the board of the institution may issue advice to a student at any time until the propaedeutic assessment has been passed.

3. Advice as referred to in paragraphs 1 and 2 may result in rejection of the student in question for certain degree programmes designated by the board of the institution within the time period referred to in paragraph 2, but not before the end of the first year of registration. Such a rejection may only be issued if the student in question, bearing in mind their personal circumstances, must in the opinion of the board of the institution be considered unfit for the degree programme because the study results do not satisfy the requirements set in this regard by the board. The board of the institution may only use the authority set out in this provision if it provides all the facilities needed to enable students to achieve the required study progress in the propaedeutic phase of the relevant degree programme.

4. Before issuing a rejection, the board of the institution will give the student a warning including a reasonable term within which their study results must have improved to the satisfaction of the board. The board of the institution will grant the student an opportunity to put their case before being rejected.

5. When a student is rejected by virtue of paragraph 3, their registration for the degree programme in question at the relevant institution will be terminated. 6. The board of the institution will define more detailed regulations for the implementation of the provisions set out above. These regulations will at least include the study results and the facilities referred to in paragraph 3, as well as the term referred to in paragraph 4.

7. An Order of Council will determine which personal circumstances, as referred to in paragraph 3, the board of the institution must take into account in its assessment.

8. For the purposes of this article, ‘propaedeutic phase’ includes the first period of a university Bachelor’s degree programme, with a student workload of 60 ECTS credit points, and ‘propaedeutic assessment’ includes the set of examinations for the course units in the first period of an academic Bachelor’s degree programme, with a total student workload of 60 ECTS credit points.

Policy, approved by the University Council on 29 March 2012, implemented in academic year 2012-2013. Adapted in response to a letter from the Minister dated 12 September 2016 about discontinuation of the P-in-2 rule, confirmed in

Additional study progress overviews will be sent to students later in the academic year.
(Paragraph 6)

2. As soon as possible after the end of the first semester, but no later than 1 March, the student will receive written preliminary study advice.
(Paragraph 4 & 6)

3. This preliminary study advice will include a warning if the student has made insufficient progress with their studies, such that the student still has the opportunity to improve their performance.
(Paragraph 4)

4. If the student’s study progress is so unsatisfactory that they cannot reasonably be expected to meet the conditions for positive study advice, as referred to in Article 5.2.2 a and b, the student will be invited to attend a meeting with their study advisor. The aim of the meeting is to discuss the student’s study habits, to reassess the choice of degree programme and if necessary to refer them to a different degree programme.
(Paragraph 3, 6 & 7)

Article 5.2 – Definitive study advice

1. Students must earn at least 45 ECTS credits in their first year of registration in the propaedeutic phase of the degree programme. This is known as the BSA (binding (negative) study advice) threshold.

2. A definitive study advice is issued at the end of the first academic year, by 31 July at the latest. This can be either:
(Paragraph 1 & 2)

   a. positive: if the student has obtained at least 45 ECTS credit points (20 ECTS credit points in the case of part-time students) for the propaedeutic programme.

   b. negative: if the student has obtained fewer than 45 ECTS credit points (20 ECTS credit points in the case of part-time students) for the propaedeutic programme. This study advice is binding for the student (binding study advice), by virtue of Article 7.8b.3 of the Act.

3. In the event that the preliminary study results are insufficient to such an extent that the student cannot reasonably be expected to pass the 45 ECTS (or 20 ECTS for part-time students) threshold by the end of the first year of study, a binding (negative) study advice may be issued subsequently to the preliminary study advice as referred to in Article 5.1 before the end of the academic year. This may also be at the request of the student. The procedure set out in Article 5.5 will apply.
(Paragraph 1 & 6)

4. a. The Faculty Board will take extraordinary personal circumstances as referred to in Article 5.4 into account in its decision on which study advice to issue in the first year of registration for the degree programme.
(Paragraph 6)

   b. Notwithstanding the provisions in paragraph 2, if no assessment can be made with regard to a student’s suitability for the degree programme due to personal circumstances in the first year, the assessment may be postponed until a later date within the propaedeutic phase. An adapted binding (negative) study advice threshold may be agreed upon in such cases.

Based on Article 7.8b, paragraphs 3 and 6 of the Act. Included in OER since 2011-2012.

Multiple degree programmes at the University of Groningen

1. Students who are registered for the propaedeutic phase of 2 or more University of Groningen degree programmes in their first year of registration and by the end of the year satisfy the binding (negative) study advice (BSA) threshold as referred to in Article 5.2 paragraph 1 for one degree programme will not have to satisfy the BSA threshold for the other programme (or programmes) in that year. After the student has successfully completed the propaedeutic phase of one degree programme, they are no longer have to satisfy the binding study advice threshold when registering for other degree programmes.

Propaedeutic certificate already obtained

2. If the student has already completed the propaedeutic phase for a university programme at the University of Groningen or another Dutch university, or – if this is not the case – if they have completed the 60 ECTS credit points of the first year at the discretion of the Board of Examiners, then the student is not subject to the binding study advice rule for the University of Groningen degree programme for which they registered in the propaedeutic phase.

Deregistration before 1 March

3. No definitive study advice will be issued to students who submit a request for deregistration before or as of 1 March of the first year of registration for the propaedeutic phase of the degree programme. If this student re-registers in a subsequent academic year, they will once again be subject to the procedure referred to in Article 5.1 in that subsequent academic year. The binding (negative) study advice regulations for the academic year in which they reregister for the degree programme will then apply.

Deregistration before 1 March + registration as of 1 February

4. Article 5.2 applies without prejudice to any students who deregister from a degree programme before 1 March and who register by 1 February of that same academic year for a programme belonging to the same programme cluster, indicated in Appendix xxx.

5. Article 5.2 applies without prejudice to any students who deregister from a full-time variant of the degree programme before 1 March and who register by 1 February of that same academic year for a part-time variant of that same programme or for a programme belonging to the same programme cluster, indicated in Appendix xxx.
Registration as of 1 February

6. An adapted binding (negative) study advice threshold will apply to students who register for a University of Groningen Bachelor’s degree programme as of 1 February and have not previously been registered as students in the same academic year. At the end of the second semester of their first year of registration, students must have obtained 20 ECTS credit points from the second semester of the degree programme’s propaedeutic phase (less than 10 ECTS in the case of a part-time programme). In all other respects, the provisions of Article 5.2 are correspondingly applicable.

Article 5.4 – Extraordinary circumstances

The basis for Article 5.4 of the OER can be found in Article 7.8b paragraph 3 of the Act (see explanatory notes to Article 5.2 paragraph 5 of the OER). Amended version in response to the letter from the Minister about the application of binding study advice.

1. When deciding whether to issue a binding (negative) study advice, the Faculty Board will take a student’s extraordinary or personal circumstances into account at that student’s request. The Faculty Board can thereupon decide to adjust the binding (negative) study advice threshold or postpone issuing a study advice.

The student’s study behaviour is also taken into account in this assessment, as are the agreements that they have made with their study advisor and/or their study schedule, the timing of notifications concerning extraordinary circumstances, and the study results they achieved at the end of their first academic year.

2. Students must report any extraordinary circumstances to the study advisor as soon as possible in order to ensure optimum support. The Faculty Board, or the Faculty BSA Committee on its behalf, will make a decision in response to a student’s request for a postponed advice or an adapted binding (negative) study advice threshold. If the study schedule drawn up with their study advisor is not met due to the binding study advice threshold (which may or may not have been modified), the student must notify their study advisor about this as soon as possible. [Article 7.8b.6 of the Act]

3. If no assessment can be made at the end of the first academic year with regard to a student’s suitability for the degree programme due to extraordinary circumstances as referred to paragraph 1, the assessment may only be postponed at the end of the first academic year of the propaedeutic phase.

4. Any study advice that is deferred can still be issued as long as the propaedeutic phase has not yet been completed.
   a. This advice will be positive if the (possibly adapted) binding (negative) study advice threshold has been passed.
   b. The advice will be negative (and binding) if the student in question still fails to pass the (possibly adapted) binding (negative) study advice threshold in the propaedeutic phase. All students whose study advice has been postponed (whether or not combined with an adaptation of their binding (negative) study advice threshold) are expected to draw up a study plan in consultation with
