UG Best Practice in Teaching & Learning Award 2023

We are looking for:

Inspiring examples of well-designed, meaningful and aspiring practices that show out-of-the-box teaching, which have the potential to improve the quality and broadens the repertoire of innovative educational practices of the UG.

Nominations should therefore:

- be evidence-informed, should be demonstrably effective either evidenced through student feedback or research on education (for example by making use of peer feedback, active learning);
- create connections between people (teachers, students and other stakeholders) and/or disciplines and methodologies (for example by facilitating collaborative teaching, peer learning, or engagement with the wider community);
- be transferable to other educational contexts and thereby have the potential to improve the quality of education at the UG.
