

Seminar Series Poverty and Health
 Inequalities – Perspectives from the Humanities

Choirs, Health, and Social Inequalities

This hybrid seminar features three speakers who have first-hand experience in working with choirs
 involving homeless singers:

- Steven Schmidt
(Der Straßenchor, Berlin)
- Kate Wareham (Choir With No Name, London)
- Thomas Johannsen (Genetic Choir, Amsterdam)

Respondent: Chris Tonelli (Arts)

GENETIC CHOIR

Date: 16 May 2022
 Time: 15:00 - 16:45
 hours (CET)

Aletta Jacobs
 SCHOOL OF PUBLIC HEALTH

The event will be hosted at Oude Boteringestraat 34 –
 Room 002 and on ZOOM. Info
 and link via Rina Knoeff
(h.g.knoeff@rug.nl)

Next Seminar: 9 June 2022
 'Linguistic aspects of poverty reduction' Featuring Gill Rowlands, Professor of Primary Care (Newcastle University)