Programme Research Meet-up 5 November 2019

Host for the day: Anne Peetoom

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Time</th>
<th>Event</th>
<th>Location</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>09:00 - 09:20</td>
<td>Coffee/tea</td>
<td>Plaza Duisenberg</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>09:20 - 09:30</td>
<td>Welcome by Aletta’s directors Frederic van Kleef and Jochen Mierau</td>
<td>Blauwe zaal</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| 09:30 - 10:30| Keynote: Gerard van den Berg, University of Bristol
Using the migrating siblings design to identify sensitive childhood ages for adult health and education | Blauwe zaal      |
| 10:30 - 11:00| Coffee/tea                                                                                | Plaza Duisenberg |
| 11:00 - 12:30| Seminar
Intergenerational transmissions
Jennifer Klop-Richards: The role of parents in resilience development
Tobias Vogt: Intergenerational resource sharing and mortality in a global perspective
Petter Lundborg: Intergenerational transmission of human capital
Dennis Raven: Where’s the need? The use of specialist mental health services in adolescence and young adulthood
Roel Freriks: Education Policies, Test Scores and Mental Health: Impact on Disadvantaged Pupils?
Frederike Jörg | Room (5412) 0005
Room (5412) 0025
Room (5412) 0028.springboardseed
| 12:30 - 13:00| Matchmaking                                                                               | Corridor Duisenberg |
| 13:00 - 14:00| Lunch break                                                                               | Plaza Duisenberg |
| 14:00 - 15:00| Keynote: Henderien Steenbeek, Hanze University of Applied Sciences
Challenging Curious Minds in education: a developmental perspective on children's healthy upbringing | Blauwe zaal      |
| 15:00 - 15:30| Coffee/tea                                                                                | Plaza Duisenberg |
| 15:30 - 17:00| Seminar
The social context
Jolanda Jetten: Unlocking the social cure: how group memberships are key to health and well-being
Ilona Koupil: Social determinants of health and the developmental origins hypothesis
René Veenstra: Social networks and social norms in an era of individualization
Cor Wagenaar: The city as a playground
Remo Mombarg: Physical environment and health. School-based health interventions: 4 years experience
Esther Hartman: Healthy and active children at school: evaluation of recent interventions | Room (5412) 0005
Room (5412) 0025
Room (5412) 0028
Room (5412) 0038
| 17:00 - 17:30| Drinks                                                                                    | Plaza Duisenberg |

---

"The issue of justice demands a sense of duty."
Aletta Jacobs