

Junior Research Meet-up

Programme 30 January 2020
09:00 - 09:30	Coffee/tea
09:30 - 09:45	Welcome
09:45 - 10:45	Keynote lecture Katherine Stroebe Associate Professor Social Psychology, University of Groningen 'The impact of chronic disaster on health and coping: A social psychological perspective on the Groningen gas extraction'
10:45 - 11:15	Coffee/tea
11:15 - 12:15	Parallel session 1a: Methods in public health research	Parallel session 1b: Social aspects of public health	Parallel session 1c: Interdisciplinarity in public health
	Bart Roelofs Mosquito vs. Machine: using GIS to discover Dengue infection trends	Justin Richardson Social relations as predictors of health and wellbeing	Floor van den Berg & Jelle Brouwer Foreign language learning to promote cognitive flexibility in healthy seniors, mild cognitive impairment, and late-life depression
	Zeinab Sattari N. Using the concept of time-space activity to understand the importance of older adults' mobility in indoor spaces	Chen Chen Social impacts on local residents' daily life created by a nearby university	Lisanne Knol Don't judge a therapy by its cover - A conversation analytic investigation into standardized therapy treatment for depression
	Joyce Doldersum Is that screen so important?! A study of the role of the Electronic Medical Record in doctor-patient communication		Thomas Teekens Mapping vocational internships in Dutch health care education: interdisciplinarity, team structure, and learning outcomes
12:15 - 13:15	Lunch
13:15 - 14:45	Workshop Career Services: Map your network	Workshop Career Services: Tailor your CV/motivation to job openings	Networking and discussion tables
14:45 - 15:00	Coffee/tea
15:00 - 16:00	Parallel session 2a: International perspectives on public health	Parallel session 2b: New perspectives in public health research	Parallel session 2c: Lifestyle in public health
	Minghui Li Death in childbed: a comparison of maternal mortality in Beijing, Amsterdam and Paris, 1900-1950	Jana Declercq Mind-body dualism in health care settings: The discourses and pragmatics of constructing illness and the body when talking about chronic pain	Iris van der Scheer Doctors' questions about prior self-treatment - a conversation analytic study
	Thomas Lowe The importance of movement: a life course perspective on the functioning to be mobile in the UK	Taichi Ochi Defending the right to privacy in the age of genomic health	Lizanne Schweren The mediating role of diet quality in common pathways to internalising problems: a study of 121,008 healthy adults
16:00 - 16:30	Drinks		