KEI-WEEK 2023

The beginning of your studentlife!

The KEI-week is the general introduction week for all new students in Groningen. It is the biggest introduction week of the Netherlands with over 5000 participants and over 1000 volunteers. In 2023 the 55th KEI-week will be organised from Monday the 14th until Friday the 18th of August!

Within five days you'll get to know the beautiful student city of Groningen. The KEI-week will inform you about sports, culture, politics and student associations. The KEI-week is also an incredibly fun week, filled with some of the biggest parties of the year. In your KEI-group with new students, led by older students, you immediately get to make new friends. With the KEI-week you'll start off your time in Groningen the right way!
