

Terms and Conditions

Talent Grant for the Master's Degree Programme Theology & Religious Studies 2017/18

1. A scholarship is only valid for the period the student is registered at the University of Groningen as a full time student within the time frame of the Master's degree programme. The maximum study period is 12 months for this 1-year programme.
2. The Talent Grant continuation is not guaranteed when a student changes his or her programme;
3. A Talent Grant granted for the Master's degree programme Theology & Religious Studies 2017-2018 cannot be transferred to another academic year;
4. For this Master's degree programme, the student is required to obtain (at least) 15 ECTS in the first semester of study in order to retain the right to a Talent Grant in the second semester. And 30 ECTS in May in order to retain the right to the Talent Grant. In cases where there is any uncertainty as to the number of ECTS standards for satisfactory progress and the time and manner in which progress will be measured, will be set by the Faculty selection committee;
5. The Talent Grant will be terminated if and when a student has been awarded, accepted and receives a full grant or scholarship from another organization for the same programme, such as, e.g. HSP, NFP, etc.
6. The scholarship will not be awarded to students who are admitted to a second Master's degree programme at the University of Groningen;
7. The student must comply with Dutch visa regulations;
8. The International Officer of the Faculty of Theology and Religious Studies should be notified as soon as possible of any change in nationality, type of residence permit, and/or possible "Studiefinanciering" support (= student finance by the Dutch government), throughout the academic year;
9. If the student terminates his or her study prematurely, any reimbursement of tuition fees will be made to the International Office and analogues to the "Regeling beëindiging inschrijving en restitutie collegegeld" (= settlement of termination of the registration and restitution of the tuition fee).
10. The student should submit the de-registration form to the International Office, indicating on the form the account number of the International Office. If applicable, the student will subsequently receive a reimbursement of the tuition fee less the Talent Grant on a pro rata basis.

11. During his/her stay in Groningen, the student should agree to take part occasionally in promotion activities for the Master programme;
12. After the scholarship period, the student will write a report of his/her stay in Groningen, which may be used for publicity purposes;
13. Students who are awarded a Talent Grant must confirm in writing that they agree with these terms and conditions of the Grant.