Practical and General Information

Campus:

The sessions will be held at the Sala De Piedra Del Rectorado, University of Las Palmas de Gran Canaria, Canary Islands, Spain

Getting to Campus/bus service:

Public transport in Las Palmas de Gran Canaria is very easy to use and there are many different lines. Depending on where you are staying you can use either of these bus companies (which have information in English with bus lines, timetables and routes) to get to and from campus:

- <https://guaguasglobal.com/en/home/> - bus lines 026, 301, 302, 303, 311, 313, 323, 324, 325, 327 and 328 connect the city with the campus.
- <https://www.guaguas.com/> - lines 7, 25, 26 and 48 connect the city with the campus

To get from the airport to campus, Guaguas Global line 329 runs from the airport to the University campus. There are also many taxi companies at the airport that can drop you off in any part of the city which may be more convenient.

Hostels/hotels:

- For hotels close to Las Canteras beach (a bus ride away from the campus):
 - <https://bullastoriagrancanaria.com-hotel.com/>
 - <http://alisios-canteras.grancanaria-hotels.com/en/>
- For options closer to the lectures' place (10 min distance by foot):
 - <https://www.sercotelhoteles.com/hotel-sercotel-hotel-parque/>
- Other more affordable options such as hostels:
 - https://www.kayak.com/Las-Palmas-de-Gran-Canaria-Hotels_Hostel.Thostel.9739.hotel.ksp - This is a local website which is in Spanish but perhaps can be translated by your browser
 - <https://www.infohostal.com/guia/las-palmas/las-palmas-de-gran-canaria/2104/alojamiento/hostales.html>

<https://www.booking.com/hostels/city/es/las-palmas-de-gran-canaria.en-gb.html> also has some good options

Emergency Number:

Emergency services can be reached by calling the European emergency number: 112 (called from anywhere in the EU free of charge from fixed or mobile phones; operators answer in Spanish but it is very likely that they will also be able to speak English).
