

Youth, education and work in (post-)conflict areas

Empowering young talent to (re)build communities Guide to group work

Summer school Groningen 17-21 July 2017

Josje van der Linden

Lifelong Learning, University of Groningen, the Netherlands

c.j.van.der.linden@rug.nl

Themes in the framework of the theme of the week

1. Community, grass roots, non state actors (Christina and others)
2. Work, transition to work, future of work, what people look for (Wouter and others) 3. Education, life skills, peace building (Line and others)

Across the board: gender

Assignment:

1. Identify key issues, challenges and opportunities
2. Develop strategies to improve policies and practices (take on board gender) 3. Prepare a poster, an interview with a journalist or a policy brief to present on Friday

Procedure

- Each day there is time allocated for group work
- (Tuesday: 2 until 4 pm including coffee/tea break; more and more time towards the end of the week)
- Make use of the insights from the lectures and plenary discussions
- Design a work method that works for you (chair person, somebody to write up, splitting up in smaller groups)
- Feel free to ask for materials or other support needed from programme committee or logistics committee