1. Tips on how to choose your master

To help you make informed choices, get to know yourself, gain insight in the labour market and learn how the Faculty of Economics and Business (FEB) Careers Services support you during your master’s programme in preparing for your future career.

2. What are 'Double Degrees' and what options are there?

FEB offers a range of Double Degree (DD) options, in collaboration with international partner universities. By following a DD programme you get the opportunity to earn two bachelor or two master degrees, one from University of Groningen and one from our partner university.

3. For exchange students:

Information about reputation of the university, financial matters and visa regulations, for current exchange students who are considering to continue their master studies at FEB.

4. Internships for FEB master programmes

Find out more about the opportunities to gain work experience, combine theory and practice and explore your career interests and skills.

5. Video testimonials of alumni

Watch inspiring interviews with FEB graduates about their career, like Matthijs Bierman, Managing Director of Triodos Bank.

6. Campus tour

Do you want to take a look around at our faculty and find out more about our facilities. One of our student ambassadors will be glad to guide you around.

7. Why study at FEB?

Find out about our extra-curricular activities to get the most out of your master.
