Minor Entrepreneurship

entrepreneurship

Valuable addition to your BSc degree

Whether you want to start your own business or work for an existing profit or non-profit organisation: entrepreneurship is of vital importance for all academic disciplines.

Choose this minor if you want to:

- Learn what entrepreneurship and entrepreneurial skills are
- Work together with students from different academic backgrounds
- Develop your business idea and pitch it to an expert jury

Adding Personal Value at the Faculty of Economics and Business

For whom?

The minor Entrepreneurship (30 ECTS) is open to all bachelor students of the University of Groningen who have passed their first year, and who do not study at the Faculty of Economics and Business.

Why take the minor?

In today's modern society, entrepreneurship is essential to all academic disciplines. Whether you want to start your own business or work in an existing profit or non-profit organisation, you need to be able to recognise opportunities. This minor is the right choice for you if you want to gain knowledge and skills that are necessary to successfully recognise and realise opportunities in the context of your major.

Programme

The minor will provide you with insights from both a theoretical and practical point of view. It consists of a package of five courses of 30 ECTS in total.

Mandatory courses:

- Introduction to Entrepreneurship (semester 1a, 5 ECTS)*
- Financial and Legal Aspects of Entrepreneurship (semester 1a, 5 ECTS)
- Market- and Knowledge-based Entrepreneurship (semester 1a, 5 ECTS)
- Entrepreneurship Project (semester 1b, 10 ECTS)*

Elective:

- Course about the context of Entrepreneurship (semester 1b, 5 ECTS)

* These courses are taken together with the students of the faculty minor Innovation & Entrepreneurship of the Faculty of Economics and Business.

How to register

You register for the minor via Progress from the day of the annual university Minor Market in April until August 1st. The minor has a limited number of places, first come first served! For more information and contact, check the website.

“Not just a good idea or money will lead to success. You will need a clear goal and be prepared to fall and rise. That is what I learned from this minor.”

Lotte Zomer,
student Pedagogical Sciences

The minor is taught by experts from the Faculty of Economics and Business (FEB) and the University of Groningen Centre of Entrepreneurship (UGCE)
