

Dutch Seminar for Early Modern Philosophy VI

Wednesday 29 May 2019

10:30 Welcome

10:45 Nabeel Hamid, "Johann Clauberg and Psychophysical Parallelism"

11:30 Ericka Tucker, "Physics v. Biology: Hobbes and Spinoza on the 'conatus'"

12:15 Lunch*

13:30 Steph Marston, "Identity, Agreement and 'Othering': Spinoza's Politics of Recognition"

14:15 Peter West, "John Sergeant as a Precursor to Berkeley's Anti-Scepticism"

15:00 Matthew Leisinger, "Cudworth on Free Will"

15:45 Tea

16:00 Keynote 1: Marleen Rozemond, "Cudworth's 'Plastick Natures' and the Limits of Mechanism"

17:30 Closing Day 1

Thursday 30 May 2019

8:30 Doors open

9:00 Anna Ortin, "Descartes on the distinction between primary and secondary qualities"

9:45 Marco Storni, "Early Eighteenth-Century Cartesian Epistemologies"

10:30 Coffee

10:45 Marringje Paijmans, "An Ambivalent View of Colonialism: Franciscus van den Enden's Spinozist Design for a Settlement in New Amstel"

11:30 Jonathan Shaheen, "Notions of Substance in Cavendish's Metaphysics"

12:15 Lunch*

13:30 Lukas Wolf, "Clarke on the perfection of the created world"

14:15 Caspar Jacobs, "Du Chatelet: Idealist about Extension, Bodies and Space"

15:00 Coffee break

15:15 Keynote 2: Alexander Douglas, "Criticisms of Spinoza's Geometrical Method in Nineteenth-Century Britain"

16:45 Tea/Coffee Break

17:00 Reading group on Toland, Letters to Serena (selection)

18:30 Closing Day 2

* DSEMP VI conference adheres to the #PlantPoweredCommunity campaign and will offer plant based lunches throughout the event