Plagiarism

What is it and how to avoid it!

Plagiarism

WHAT IS PLAGIARISM?

Plagiarism is the act of using someone else's work, ideas, words, or expressions without proper attribution and presenting them as your own.

HOW DOES THE UNIVERSITY VIEW PLAGIARISM?

Plagiarism is considered a serious offense by the university. It violates academic integrity and can lead to severe consequences, including disciplinary action, failure of assignments or courses, and even expulsion.

WHAT TYPES OF PLAGIARISM ARE THERE?

EIt is a form of intellectual dishonesty and can involve copying text, paraphrasing someone else's work without acknowledgment, or even using someone's unique ideas or research without giving credit.

DID YOU KNOW THAT YOU CAN SELF-PLAGIARISE?

Self-plagiarism occurs when an individual reuses their own previously submitted work or published content without proper citation or acknowledgment, presenting it as new or original. SO BE SURE TO CITE YOURSELF IF NECESSARY!
