

Welcoming activities
Research Master Behavioural and Social Sciences
4 September – 8 September

Monday September 4
11.00-12.00h	Welcome to the Graduate School BSS <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Official welcome to the programme in Behavioural and Social Sciences by the program director prof. Rafaele Huntjens</li><li>Practical information about the programme by the Graduate School coordinator, Ingrid Veenstra MSc</li><li>Practical information about planning and study progress by the Academic advisor, Iris de Boer MSc</li></ul> All students are expected to attend this welcome meeting, including those who studied at the Faculty of Behavioural and Social Sciences of the University of Groningen before.	M.0074
12.00-13.00h	Lunch Following this official welcome, you are all invited for lunch.	Orangerie
Wednesday 6 September
13.00-15.00h	Welcome meeting ‘Lifespan development and Socialization’ Students of this theme will be introduced to various lecturers and the theme. Including coffee, tea and sweet treats.	Hv.0413
13.00-15.00h	Welcome meeting ‘Mental Health: Perspectives from Neuro- and Clinical Psychology’ Students of this theme will be introduced to various lecturers and the theme. Including coffee, tea and sweet treats,	Hv.0306
16.00-17.00h	Library instruction This instruction is intended for the students who are new to the Faculty of Behavioural and Social Sciences. More information and registration click here .	M.0074
Thursday 7 September
15.00-17.00h	Introduction to multidisciplinary research Mandatory meeting by dr. Bertus Jeronimus.	M.0074
Friday 8 September
13.00-15.00h	Welcome meeting ‘Understanding Societal Change’ Students of this theme will be introduced to various lecturers and the theme. Including coffee, tea and sweet treats.	Hv.0414
	Event organized by second-year students You will receive an e-mail the week prior about this activity.	TBA

