

Student for a Day in European Languages and Cultures

Monday, December 7th 2020

Programme Information

Welcome to European Languages and Cultures at the University of Groningen! Great that you want to know how a student day in our programme looks like.

Important: In order to participate in the Student for a Day, you must register here! (Click on “Volgende” / “Next”, then select “European Languages and Cultures, then click on the registration icon). Deadline for registration: December 1st.

What to prepare before December 7th:

- Mandatory: Make sure that you will have a computer, notebook or tablet with a stable internet connection and working audio speakers on the day. Please do not use Internet Explorer, but the latest version of another browser, ideally Chrome.
- Highly recommended: For the best communication and interaction with lecturers and peers, we recommend that you also have a webcam and microphone; however, communication via chat is also possible.
- We highly recommend that you read the information about our programme on our info pages in advance to the event.

Programme on December 7th:

9:30-10:00

Welcome, introduction to your day at ELC, and brief introduction into the BA programme
Important practical information

10:00-11:30

Mini Seminar Sessions in the three Programme Profiles. The Profiles are the academic cores of your studies in European Languages and Cultures. Experienced and renowned researchers from a variety of academic fields will teach you about political, cultural and linguistic core questions surrounding contemporary Europe and beyond. Today you will get an insight into all three profiles:

10:00 Culture and Literature

10:30 Politics and Society

11:00 Language and Society

11:30-12:00 Break

12:00-ca. 13:30 Online Q&A Lunch Groups. In small online groups, you will meet experienced BA students from our programme, whom you can ask questions about their experience, student life, learning in Groningen and online etc. Feel free to “bring” your own lunch to the online sessions!

13:30-14:15 Break

14:15-14:45 Taster Language Classes 1. A massive added value of studying ELC is that you can gain excellent language skills in one or two languages of your choice, taught by experienced experts in Language Learning. In most cases, you will participate in real language classes with real students, taught mostly in the target language.

14:15 English (intermediate)

14:15 French (intermediate)

14:15 Italian (beginner)

14:15 Russian (beginner)

14:15 Swedish (intermediate)

15:00-15:30 Taster Language Classes 2. In this second round, you can join another language class. At 15:00, please choose one of the following languages by clicking on it. The link will take you directly to the class. Please be on time and do not swap sessions:

15:00 Dutch as a foreign language

15:00 German (intermediate)

15:00 Spanish (beginner)

15:00 Spanish (beginner-intermediate)

15:00 Russian

At 15:30, you are welcome to join our Closing Q&A session and ask any questions related to today's experience.
