SECTION 1 GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1.1 Applicability

These Regulations comprise two parts – Part A and Part B. This degree programme-specific Part B accompanies Part A, which contains general provisions which apply to the teaching, examinations and final assessments of Bachelor's degree programmes provided by the Faculty of Arts, hereinafter referred to as the Faculty. Part B contains degree programme-specific provisions which apply to the Bachelor's degree programme in International Relations and International Organization.

SECTION 2 ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

Article 2.1 Admission to the programme with profile requirement

Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 2.1 of Part A, it is additionally required for this degree programme that: n.a.

Article 2.2 Educational deficiencies

1. Deficiencies in educational qualifications in the subjects listed below may be compensated for by passing the relevant examinations at the level of the Dutch VWO final examination to the satisfaction of the Admissions Board: n.a.
2. Under certain circumstances, the Admissions Board can request a University Lecturer in the relevant subject to arrange one or more examinations.

Article 2.3 – Starting date

Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 2.7 of Part A, the following additional requirement applies to this degree programme:

Students who have previously been enrolled in this degree programme or who wish to start in a higher year may apply to the Admissions Board for permission to start on a date other than 1 September. The Admissions Board will grant permission for an alternative starting date if the specific course units that the student in question wishes to follow start on this date and if the student has satisfied the entry requirement for these course units.

			at least 40 ECTS in 2 nd year courses by 1 September 2026

* The BA thesis must be completed in the same semester as the Specialization module. Specialization modules are independent courses within a unified course code; notwithstanding provisions in TER A, they need to be retaken, with a different teacher, in case the BA Thesis component is not passed.

 Language I and II are in principle taken in the same foreign language.

 For students who wish to follow the Law and Economics trajectory.

SECTION 8 TRANSITIONAL AND FINAL PROVISIONS

Article 8.1 – Amendments

- Any amendments to part A of these Regulations will, following a recommendation by and/or subject to the approval of the Programme Committee and in consultation with – and where necessary subject to the approval of – the Faculty Council, be adopted by the Faculty Board in a separate decision.
- Any amendments to part B of these Regulations will, following a recommendation by and/or subject to the approval of the Programme Committee and in consultation with – and where necessary subject to the approval of – the Faculty Council, be adopted by the Faculty Board in a separate decision.
- Any amendments to these Regulations will not apply to the current academic year, unless it may reasonably be assumed that the amendment in question will not harm the interests of students.
- In addition, an amendment may not influence any other decision concerning a student taken by the Board of Examiners under these Regulations to the disadvantage of students.

Article 8.2 - Transition arrangements

In order to accommodate the transition to the new programme, curricular adjustments and course-specific transition regulations are necessary.

1. In academic year 2026/27, the following courses listed in Article 5.1 will not be offered: EU Politics and Law in Global Perspective; Security, Conflict and War; Introduction to Statistics and Data Analysis.
2. Instead, in academic year 2026/27, the following courses will be offered: Theory of International Relations; Policy and Governance.
3. Students who registered in academic year 2024/25 or earlier fulfil PLO e6 in article 3.1 if they have successfully completed IRIO Introduction to International and European Law (5 ECTS) and IRIO European Law (5 ECTS).
4. Students who registered in academic year 2024/25 or earlier fulfil PLO e7 in article 3.1 if they have successfully completed Introduction to Economics (5 ECTS) and International Political Economy of Monetary Relations (5 ECTS).
5. Furthermore, course-specific transitional arrangements are necessary for students who registered in 25/26 or earlier and who are still entitled to an examination in one of the courses from the previous programme that are being phased out with the introduction of the new programme. Depending on the course unit, they will either be allowed to take a broom class, follow one of the new courses as a replacement, or, as a last resort, an individual arrangement approved by the BoE.
