

PhD workshop Empirical Sport Economics and Health Economics

Groningen, 30-31 August 2016

This workshop is organized to precede the 8th international conference of the European Sport Economics Association. This conference is organized in Groningen, 31 Augustus 2016-2 September 2016. The target group is PhD students who will attend the conference, and others who are interested. Expected attendance: 20-30. Location of the workshop is Het Kasteel, Melkweg 1, Groningen. Participants will get a certificate upon attending the workshop. In order to be able to participate, students are asked to bring their own laptop, with a working copy of the software of your choice (preferably, Stata or R).

Program

30 August 2016

09.00-12.00 hrs.: Empirical methods in sport economics-Rob Simmons (Lancaster University, www.lancaster.ac.uk/lums/people/robert-simmons)

12.00-13.30 hrs.: Lunch

13.30-16.00 hrs.: Case

16.00-17.00 hrs.: Presentations of solution to the case

19.30-22.00 hrs.: Dinner in Humphreys (Pelsterstraat 15, Groningen)

31 August 2016

09.00-11.00 hrs.: Empirical health economics-Chris Bojke (University of York, www.york.ac.uk/che/staff/research/chris-bojke/)

11.00-11.15 hrs.: Coffee/tea

11.15-12.00 hrs.: Academic writing-Pamela Wicker (German Sport University Cologne, www.dshs-koeln.de/visitenkarte/person/pd-dr-pamela-wicker/)

After 12.00 hrs. participants can have lunch at their own convenience. The program of the 8th conference of the European Sport Economics Association starts at 1600 in De Euroborg.