

ESRIG symposium 2018

welcome

Master Energy and Environmental Sciences (EES)

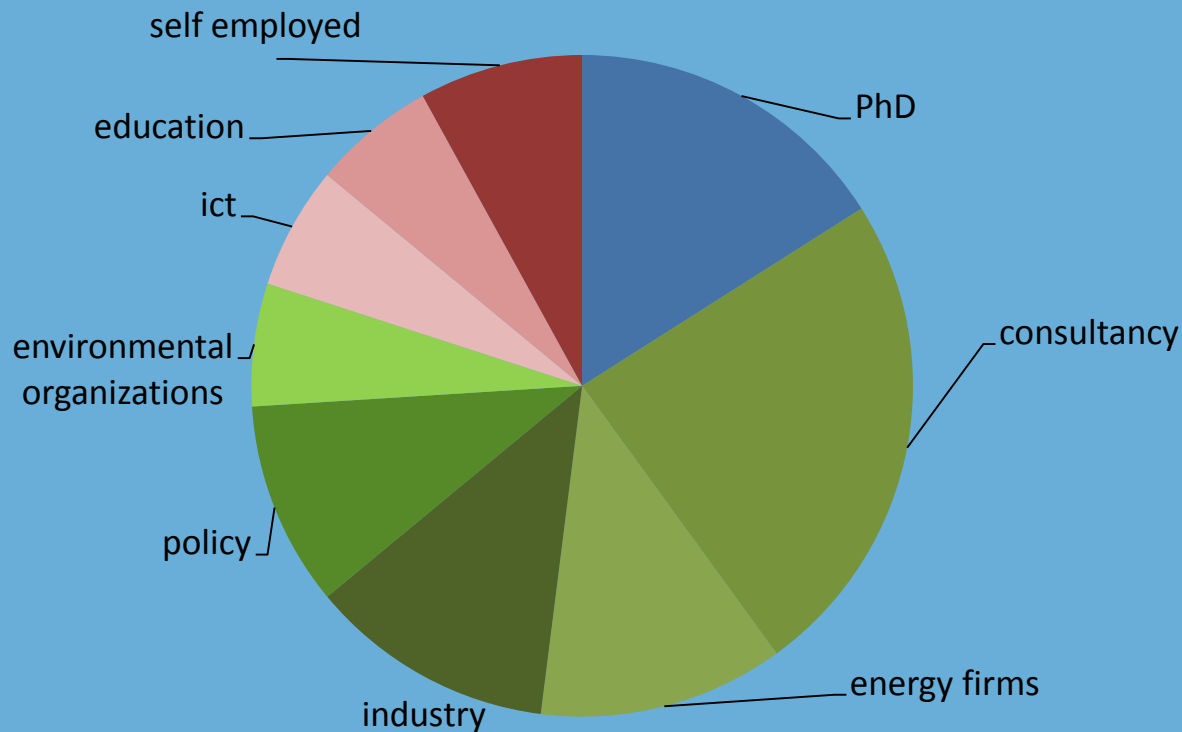

Dr. ir. Sanderine Nonhebel

Deputy programme director

Introduction

- 2 year MSc-programme, 30 students per cohort
- Entry requirements: BSc natural sciences

First jobs cohorts 15-17

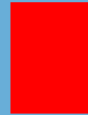

Recent changes

Recent changes

(qualitative)

student numbers

course development

valuation

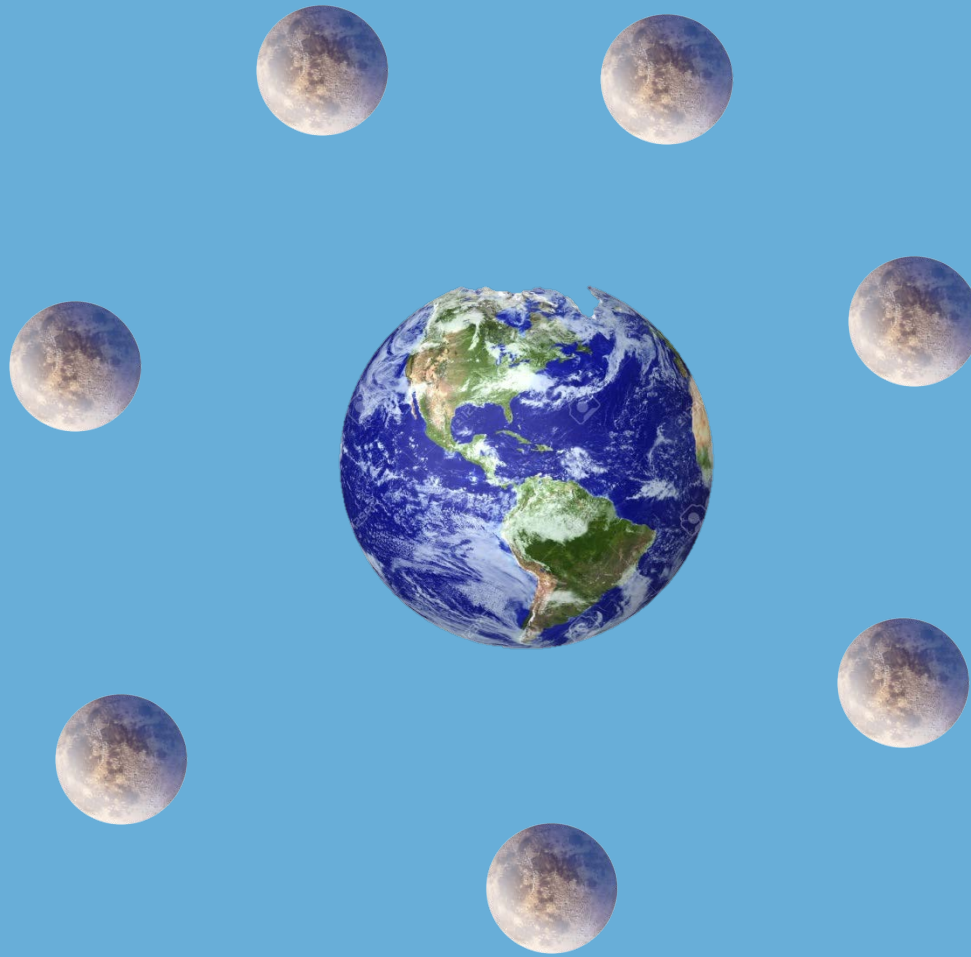

staff

diversity
students/
staff

age
staff

social events

Relation ESRIG-EES master

disciplines

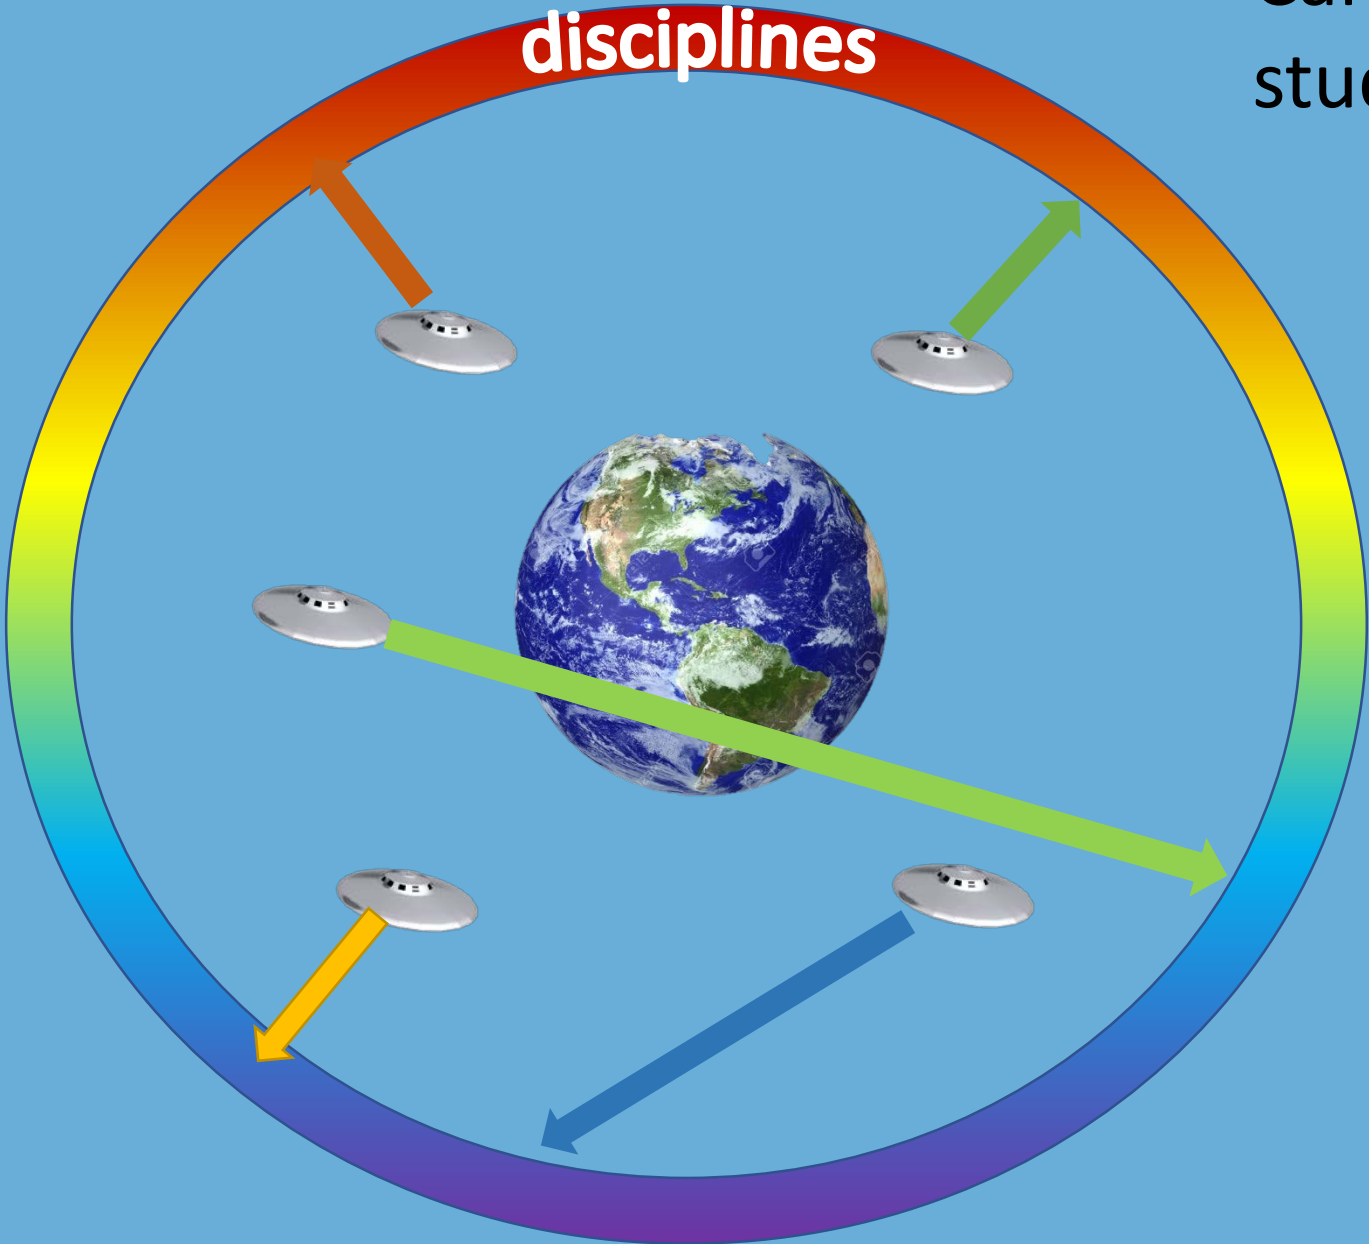

EES master programme

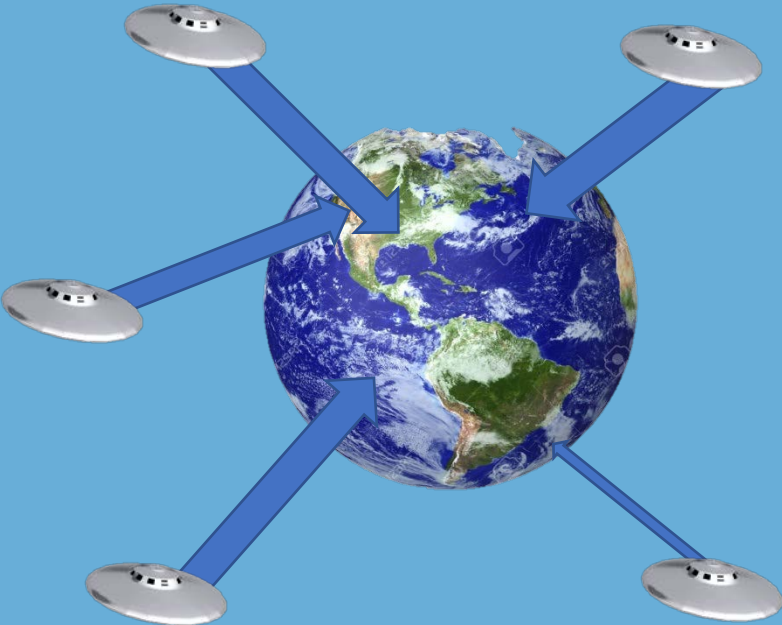

30 students

Career
students

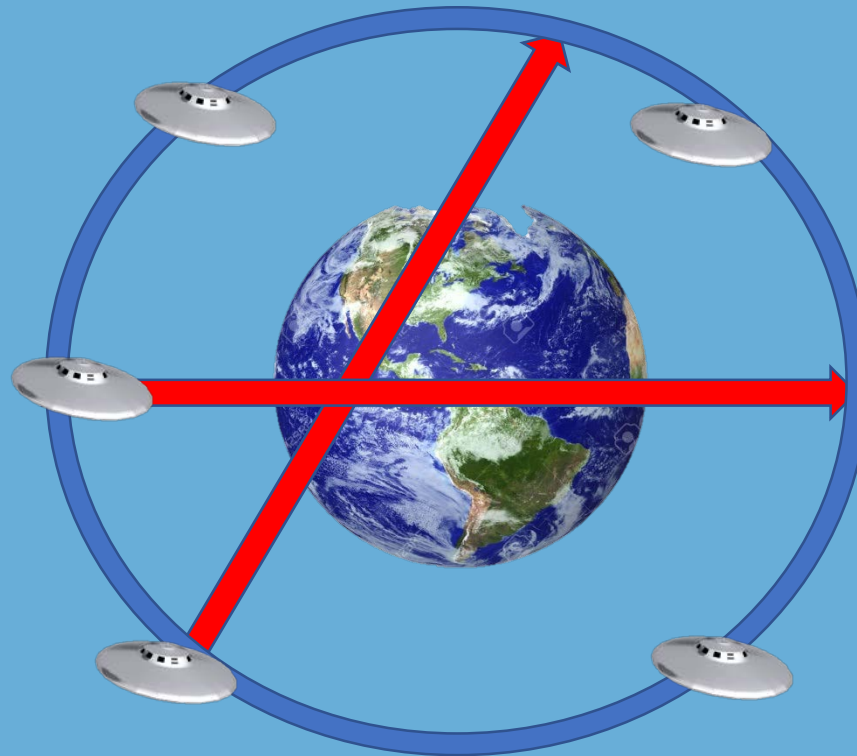

Semester 1a and 1b

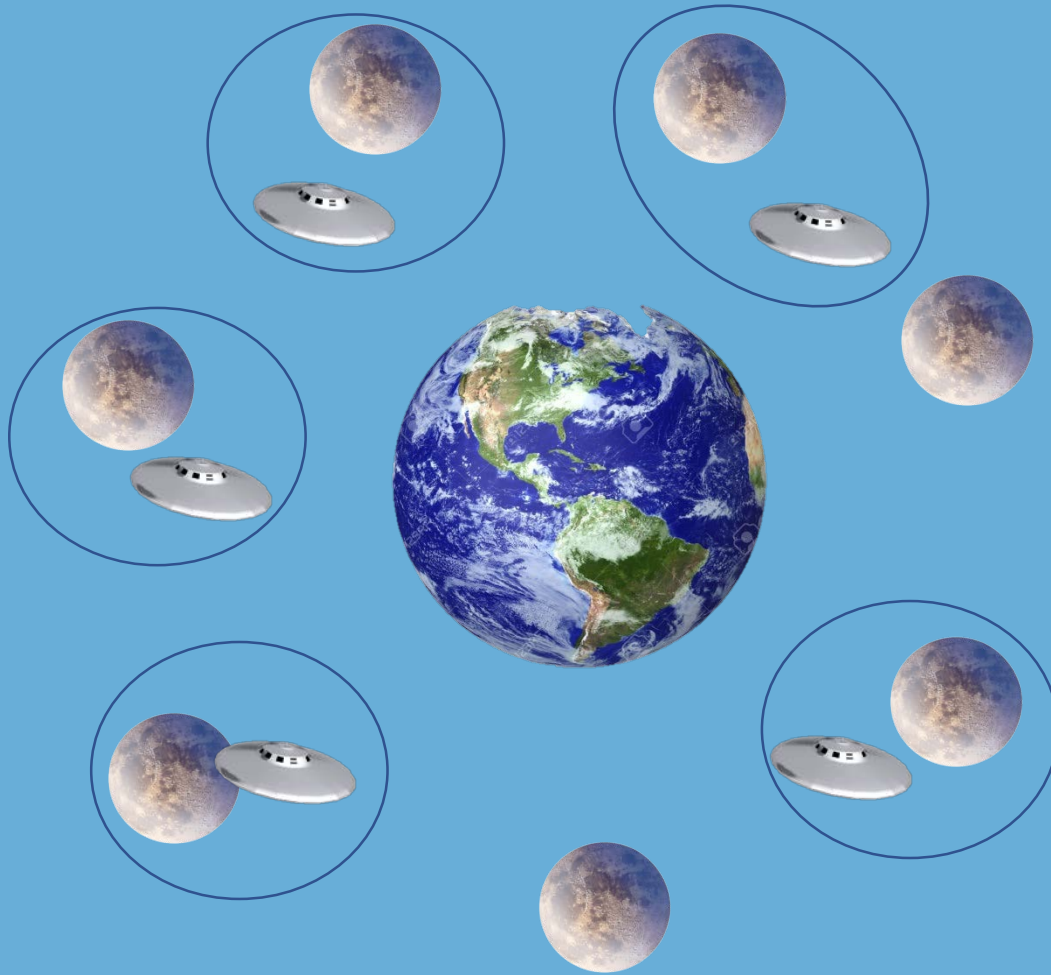

Semester 2

Courses at masterlevel suitable for all not possible

tutor

Tailormade programme

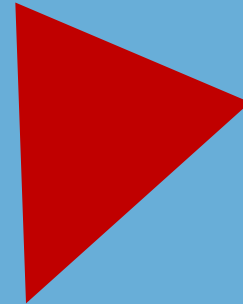

Learning outcomes EES master

Knowledge on Energy and Climate Change issues

Student has master skills within his/her discipline/subfield

Thank you