

Programme Humanities Unbound 2026

April 29th | 12:00 - 17:00 |  House of Connections

12:00 - 12:30  Walk-in and coffee

12:30 - 13:15  Opening lecture by Marije Miedema - (Un)bound by tensions: Reflecting on Arts/Science Collaborations

13:15 - 14:30  Paper presentations + Q&A

Mariana Astengo Macias - AI Data Center Development and International Politics

Leonidas Zotos - When in Doubt, Pick the Famous One: A Corpus-Driven Guessing Strategy for Multiple-Choice Questions

Anjar Dwi Astuti - Narrative of Diversity in Secondary School of Indonesian History Textbooks

Cosima Annabelle Hofacker - Visual Gendered Disinformation

14:30 - 14:50  Coffee & tea break

14:50 - 15:35  Pitches + Paper presentations + Q&A

Zacharoula Mouzouri - Inherited Peace, Inherited Conflict: Deep Reconciliation and the Politics of Memory

Mayke Vos - Constructing Love Brick by Brick: Amatonormativity and Popular Cinema

Dengiyefa Angalapu - Environmental Agency and the Paradox of Pollution: A Historical Analysis of Artisanal Crude Oil Refining in the Niger Delta

Luisa F. Isaza-Ibarra - A Judge Walks into a Comedy Trial: Humour, Free Speech, and the Relevance of the Humanities

15:35 - 15:45  Break

15:45 - 17:00  Paper presentations + Q&A

Luisa Fernanda Velásquez Vallejo - Towards the Normalization of Genocide: an MCDA Pilot Study of Israel's TikToks on their Ongoing Military Campaign against Palestinians

Gisel Barbieri - Academic Publishers' Surveillance Infrastructures and the Threat to Critical Inquiry

Isabell Raue - EU Perceptions of Chinese World Order Visions: A Narrative

Merijn Benning - Learning to Belong in Motion: Sociolinguistic and Socioemotional Pathways of Migrant Students in Dutch Primary Education

17:00 Wrap up & Drinks at external location

PhD Council
Humanities