

Call of 1 June 2015:

STSM Applicant: Dr Borbála Lovas, MTA-TKI, MTA-ELTE Humanism in East Central Europe Research Group, Budapest (HU)

STSM Topic: The Transylvanian Textual Tradition and European Context of a Unitarian Sermon Collection

Host: Prof. Dr Csilla Gábor, Babeş-Bolyai University, Cluj-Napoca (RO)

Period: 2015-10-01 to 2015-12-31

Aim: Study and transcription of codices containing a sermon collection written by bishop György Enyedi, currently kept in Cluj-Napoca, for the preparation of a critical edition.

Grant awarded: 1500 Euro

Call of 15 August 2015:

STSM Applicant: Dr Martin Dekarli, Hussite Theological Faculty, Charles University, Prague (CZ)

COST STSM Reference Number: COST-STSM-IS1301-27747

STSM Topic: The Idea of Reform and Formation of Community: John Wyclif and Bohemia in 15th Century

Host: Pavlína Rychterová, Institute for Medieval Research, Austrian Academy of Science, Vienna (AT)

Period: 2015-09-14 to 2015-12-13

Aim: Investigation of manuscripts in libraries of Austria (Österreichische Nationalbibliothek) and the Czech Republic (Národní knihovna) in order to complete a study of John Wyclif's tract Dialogus and its Old-Bohemian conversion carried out by the Czech Reformed Theologian Jacobellus de Missa (d. 1429).

Grant awarded: 2500 Euro

STSM Applicant: Mr Gábor Fölköli, Hungarian Academy of Sciences - University ELTE, Budapest (HU)

COST STSM Reference Number: COST-STSM-IS1301-29569

STSM Topic: Hexaemeric literature in vernacular in 16th-century France

Host: François Bougard, IRHT, CNRS, Paris, 75116 Paris (FR)

Period: 2015-10-26 to 2015-11-22

Aim: This project intends to show the popularity of vernacular Creation stories, by studying the vernacular hexaemeric literature written in 16th-century France, i. e., Christian narratives on the Creation of the world, mostly based on the homiletic works of Saint Ambrose and Saint Basil the Great.

Grant awarded: 1500 Euro