Acknowledgements

This research is part of the TRacking Adolescents' Individual Lives Survey (TRAILS). Participating centers of TRAILS include various departments of the University Medical Center and University of Groningen, the University of Utrecht, the Radboud Medical Center Nijmegen, and the Parnassia Group, all in the Netherlands. TRAILS has been financially supported by various grants from the Netherlands Organization for Scientific Research (NWO), ZonMW, GB-MaGW, the Dutch Ministry of Justice, the European Science Foundation, the European Research Council, BBMRI-NL, and the participating universities. We are grateful to everyone who participated in this research or worked on this project to make it possible.

The research presented in this thesis was funded by the Friesland Mental Health Services (GGZ Friesland).

The printing of this thesis was financially supported by the Graduate School of Medical Sciences, Research Institute SHARE, of the University Medical Center Groningen, and the University of Groningen.

Waarheen je ging, naar wat voor verre oorden, en wat het lot voor je in petto had,
het gaf niet, als je dit maar niet vergat:
de naald van het kompas wijst naar het noorden.

Wie die zich op dit doornig levenspad aan tegenspoed of wederzakers stoorde, zolang hij in zijn hart nog altijd hoorde de beiaard van de toren in de stad?

En wat het vreemd bestaan ons nu en later te bieden heeft, of (vaker) van ons claimt, die stem klinkt mettertijd steeds obstinater.

Want waar je verder ook van raakt vervreemd, je blijft een kind van Stad en Alma Mater,
wat niets of niemand je nog ooit ontnemt.
