Acknowledgments

I would like to acknowledge those people who created favourable conditions for my PhD research. My thanks first goes to Prof. Dr. Le Quang Minh, Prof. Dr. Tran Phuoc Duong, Prof. Dr. Tran Thuong Tuan, Prof. Dr. Le Phuoc Loc, Mr. Chau Van Luc at Cantho University, who supported me in the application for the PhD research at the University of Groningen. Similarly, my deep appreciation goes to Madeleine Gardeur, Head of the International Bureau at the University of Groningen (RUG), for her invaluable advice and spiritual support throughout the application process and stages of my research. Besides, I would like to thank the Erik Bleumink Fund Committee of the University of Groningen for awarding me a fellowship to complete the research. I also appreciate the assistance from Gonny Lakerveld, Wiebe Zijlstra, Erik Haarbrink, Anita Veltmaat, Hans Schoenmakers, Hans Biemans, Gert Gritter at the International Bureau, University of Groningen, for all things related to ‘practicalities.’ I would like to express my thanks to the people at the Administration and Personnel Department at Cantho University for their support in the process of my research.

I also would like to acknowledge my supervisors for their invaluable feedback and support. My thanks goes to Prof. Dr. Bert Creemers, Dean of the Faculty of Education, Psychology, and Social Sciences, who gave me insight into “seeing the house instead of focusing on a tree in front of the
In addition, I would like to thank Dr. Marjolijn Verspoor at the Faculty of Arts, University of Groningen, for her daily feedback on my thesis and for her patience on my process of reaching ‘enlightenment.’ My thanks also goes to Dr. Henk Guldemond, Educational Research Institute (GION), University of Groningen who assisted me in designing the matrix for collecting data in the exploratory study and who shared my daily turbulences.

My colleagues in Vietnam are also those that I would like to acknowledge. First, I would like to thank Prof. Dr. Vo Tong Xuan, Nguyen Hong Dao, Lam My Tien, To Nguyen Phuong Loan, Tran Anh Thong, at University of An giang for their support in assisting me collecting data in An giang. I also gratefully acknowledge Dr. Tran Thanh Ai, Truong Vo Dung, Nguyen Hoang Vinh, Truong Kim Ngan, Nguyen Thi Thuy, Dinh Xuan Mai, Huynh Trong Nghia, Tran Mai Hien, Diep Phi Yen, Pham Thu Nga, Duong thi Duyen, Luong Le Thuc Trinh, Le Cong Tuan, Tran Van Minh, Le Ngoc Thuy, and Truong Kim Phuong, at Cantho University, for helping me in collecting and processing the data in Cantho. I especially thank Dr. Nguyen Anh Tuan, Prof. Dr. Le Phuoc Loc, Dr. Huynh Cong Tin, and Le Lam, at Cantho University, for their helpful feedback on my survey of Vietnamese determiners. I cannot forget my colleague Huynh Trung Tin for providing me with invaluable documents regarding Vietnamese linguistics. In addition, I offer a special vote of thanks to my colleagues, who are too numerous to name, at the English Department of Cantho University, for their encouragement and assistance in taking care of my teaching load while I was away.

Acknowledgments
I also would like to acknowledge my colleagues and friends in Groningen who directly or indirectly contributed to my thesis. These people include Angeliek van Hout, Hans Jansen, Wander Lowie, Geart van de Meer, Sybrine Bultena, Nynke Borst, Pieter de Boele van Hensbroek, Ingrid van der Werff, Jantje van der Ploeg, Le Thi Nguyet Chau, Vo Thi Thanh Loc, Pham Van Beo, Nguwen Thi Hien, Pham Thi Thu Tra, Truong Dong Loc, Luu Thanh Duc Hai, Doan Nhu Bich, Ji Bin, and David Gardeur. My two ‘paranimfen’1 are those I would like to say thanks, too. They are Hillie Veneman and Miranda Lubbers. My deep gratitude also goes to Geert Joosten, University Council President, RUG, for his invaluable support for my ‘vision of life.’ I also owe my thanks to Nguyen Ngoc Lan, Plantation Community College in Florida, who introduced me to some American friends, who in turn provided me with native judgments on the tests used in the research. My special thanks will go to Le Huu Nghiem, my blood brother, who helped to design the cover of this book.

I sincerely appreciate the helpful comments from the senior researchers and my fellow PhD-students at the Educational Research Institute (GION), Faculty of Education, Psychology, and Social Sciences (PPSW), RUG. My special thanks goes to Prof. Dr. Roel Bosker, Director of GION, for his generous assistance throughout the different stages of my research.

Finally, I want to warmly acknowledge my mother and mother-in-law, my wife, Nguyen Truong Thi Tuan Anh, and my daughters, Nguyen

---

1 These are those who accompanied and assisted me in my PhD-dissertation defence.
Thu Nha Trang and Nguyen Thu Quynh Trang, for their patience while I was away from home. Without their loving support, the whole thesis would have been impossible.