Acknowledgements

Throughout my PhD journey, I have received a great deal of guidance, support, and assistance from my supervisors, colleagues, friends, and family members. I would like to take this opportunity to acknowledge you all from the bottom of my heart.

First and foremost, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to my supervisor Prof. Gerrit J. Poelarends for the continuous support of my PhD study, for your patience, motivation, trust, and immense knowledge. Your guidance helped me in all the time of research and writing of this thesis. I will never forget what I have learned from you, and I will use them in my future career.

I would like to thank my second supervisor Prof. Wim J. Quax for creating and maintaining such a comfortable academic atmosphere at the Department of Chemical and Pharmaceutical Biology (CPB) and for your suggestions and remarks during group meetings.

In the meantime, I would like to thank the members of the reading committee, Prof. Marco W. Fraaije, Prof. Gerard Roelfes, and Prof. Ulf Hanefeld, for taking time to read and evaluate my thesis.

My sincere thanks also go to Prof. Wiktor Szymanski, Prof. Dirk J. Slotboom, Mark W.H. Hoorens, Dr. Valentina Arkhipova, and Dr. Lucien Lameijer, who were friendly involved in the photoswitchable-TBOA project, for the great and fruitful collaborative work in Chapter 4. Many thanks to Prof. Anders A. Jensen and Prof. Lennart Bunch (University of Copenhagen), who helped us to evaluate the EAATs inhibitory activity of my newly prepared Asp derivatives. Without their precious support, it would not be possible to conduct the research in Chapter 3. Moreover, I would like to thank André for the assistance of recording NMR spectra, and Marcel for measuring HRMS of all my samples.

Many thanks to all my colleagues at CFB. To Prof. Frank J. Dekker, Prof. Hidde Haisma, Dr. Ykelien Boersma, Dr. Robbert H. Cool for the insightful discussions and useful suggestions during our group meetings. Special thanks to our lovely and helpful technicians Pieter, Ronald, and Rita, without your selfless and timely assistance it would not be possible for me to finish my PhD within four years. To our secretaries Yvonne and Janita for helping me out of the paperwork, it made my life much easier. To my labmates and officemates Alex, Andreas, Chao, Eleonora, Fabiola, Faizan, Guangcai, Jielin, Laura B., Lieuwe, Marie, Michele, Sabry, Saif, Saravanan, Tjie, Yan Ni, and Zainal, for the stimulating discussions, for the wonderful days we were working together, and for all the good times we have had in and outside of the lab. Particularly, I am grateful to Guangcai and Lieuve for being my parannymphs. To the former and current members of CFB, Abel, Ali, Baojie, Bin, Christel, Dan, Deng, Fangyuan, Gea, Hao, Hannah, Hegar, Ingy, Jan, Jane, Joko, Laura F.S., Linda, Magda, Martijn, Olivia, Petra, Putri, Roberta, Siqi, Siwei, Shanshan, Thea, Xinyu, Yizhou, Yafeng, and Zhangping, thank you for your kind assistance.

Special thanks to my Chinese friends, Chentao Ji, Chao Wang, Duligen, Huatang Cao, Huala Wu, Ji Zhang, Jingyao Li, Kai Gao, Keni Yang, Lin Zhou, Luo Ge, Liang Xu, Mingming Shi, Na Qing, Qi Xu, Shanshan Ge, Suriguga, Tianyu, Wenjia Wang, Wenxuan Zhang, Wang Qian, Xingchen Yan, Xiaohong Peng, Xiaodong Cheng, Xiaoyin Fang, Yuanze Wang, Yafei Guo, Yiming Guo, Yuanyuan Wang, Yang Zhang, Yuzhen Qin, Yehan Tao, Yana Geng, Zhenchen Tang, Zhi Zhou, for the wonderful days and nights we spent together in The Netherlands, and for all your likes to my WeChat updates.

I will never forget the full support from Prof. Danqing Song, my MS supervisor in PUMC, without your generous help it would be difficult for me to study abroad. I am grateful to Prof. Yanxiang Wang for enlightening me the first glance of doing research. My sincere thanks to Dr. Lichen Liu, a true friend, for arranging several academic (gourmet) trips, with insightful and stimulating midnight chats.

Last but foremost, I would like to express my deepest gratitude to my lovely family, my parents and sister, for their unconditional support and understanding throughout my whole life, especially when I am doing my PhD in the past four years. My heartfelt thanks to Xiao xuan, for your sacrifices, for always being around, for preparing nice foods and taking care of me, and more. No words can express how important you are to me.

About the author

Haigen Fu was born on the 13th October 1990 in Jiangxi, China. He won the first prize of the National Chemistry Olympiad in 2007 during his high school period. In July 2012, he obtained his Bachelor degree in Pharmaceutical Engineering from Qingdao University of Science and Technology. In June 2015, he earned his Master degree in Medicinal Chemistry from Peking Union Medical College under the supervision of Prof. Danqing Song. In the Master program, he was trained as a synthetic organic chemist to handle multiple-step synthesis of small molecules for exploring new antibiotics against drug-resistant bacteria. In October 2015, he moved to The Netherlands to pursue his doctoral degree in the Department of Chemical and Pharmaceutical Biology, University of Groningen, under the supervision of Prof. Gerrit J. Poelarends. His doctoral research focuses attention on biocatalytic asymmetric synthesis of complex unnatural amino acids using C-N lyases, of which the results are described in this thesis.
